

A PEEK AT THE PROGRAM–SATURDAY, JUNE 15
BY FRANK DRUCKER,
Publicity Director, Empire City @ Yonkers Raceway

Some insights into tonight's racing program
(and before we forget, Happy Father's Day, though a day early...Hi, Dad).

3RD RACE – (1) DOJEA SOLO is back at max aptitude level and wins draw. Has been known to get bold when able to carve out mile, that is probably the plan.

4TH RACE – (4) LIGHTNING ONYMYFEET backed away after pocketed to fast three-quarters in last. Catches suspect group this level, taken to find a way.

6TH RACE – (5) LEAN HANOVER is sort of tricky tout in week's featured trot, Outraced odds week ago, but last quarter was circa 1964, just third 2019 start.

9TH RACE – (2) DR. J HANOVER appears the main beneficiary of the open draw in adult pace. Should step around inside foe and be forwardly-placed, so nod.

10TH RACE – (7) IDEAL JIMMY gets a week away from the big boys after offering sneaky late foot week ago. Hardly surmise he's an off-the-pace lad again.

11TH RACE – (4) DON DOMINGO N returns to level of last win after a trio of no-shot trips. Does not seem to have any alibis, though gonna chase once again.

$2 +/- (thru Tue., June 11) – 127 wins ($809.50)
from 613 ($1,226) selex (-$416.50, now available fragrance-free)

highest-priced winner – BOINGANATOR ($43.80) lowest-priced winner – RICH AND MISERABLE ($2.10, solid)
